Call for Volunteers / Voluntary Trainees in Residence at the Global China Academy (GCA)

Join us in fostering deep understanding between China and the global society through social sciences and humanities. At GCA, we value social creativity, transculturality, and transdisciplinary approaches. Our work extends from academic research to public engagement, supported by our publishing subsidiary, Global Century Press (GCP), and facilitated through our annual Global China Dialogues (GCDs).

We're Looking for:

- Editors & Translators
- Web & Graphic Designers
- Legal Advisors & Other Professionals
- Event Coordinators & Social Media Experts
- Administrators, Fundraisers, & Marketing Specialists
- Interns

Get Involved:

Your contribution will vary with GCA's needs and projects. From translating publications to promoting events, there's a role for everyone interested in enhancing China-global understanding.

Benefits:

- Develop valuable skills and gain unique experiences
- Receive recognition for your contributions in GCA publications
- Enhance your CV and build professional connections
- Access to advice and fast-track publication opportunities
- A reference from GCA

Resident Volunteer Opportunities:

For those interested, GCA offers free accommodation in London in exchange for volunteer work, ideal for interns and trainees. This includes a one-month trial period.

How to Apply:

Interested individuals should:

- Fill out the application form on our website, including basic information, a work proposal (up to 500 words), and your CV.
- Visit GCA's volunteer page for more details and the application form.

Join us in our mission at GCA and help shape global understanding and cooperation. Apply now to make a difference! Click here to view more detail: <https://globalchinaacademy.org/information-volunteers-voluntary-work-gca>.
